

General Terms and Conditions of Use for the Company Register

IMPORTANT!

Following the entry into force of the Act Transposing the Digitalisation Directive (DiRUG) on 1 August 2022, accounting documents and company reports for financial years commencing after 31 December 2021 must be submitted to the Company Register.

The Company Register is the right disclosure medium for these documents only.

Accounting documents and company reports with a financial year commencing before 1 January 2022 must continue to be submitted to the Bundesanzeiger (German Federal Gazette) even after the entry into force of the DiRUG.

Under the DiRUG, accounting documents and company reports for financial years commencing before 1 January 2022 must continue to be submitted to the Bundesanzeiger. If these documents are mistakenly submitted to the Company Register, the register-keeping authority reserves the right to forward the data to the Bundesanzeiger for disclosure. The Bundesanzeiger charges a higher processing fee for this forwarding.

Please refer to the overview provided in "Fees and charges".

There is no obligation to return or retain any transmitted data, data carriers and documents that are not intended for inclusion in the Company Register or that do not meet the technical requirements. Orders whose contents violate Acts of law, official regulations or boni mores will not be carried out.

Section 1 Contents

- (1) The data specified in Section 8b (2) HGB (German Commercial Code) shall be made available for retrieval in the Company Register.
- (2) For reasons of long-term archiving, comparability of information and efficient work processes, the data in the Company Register is kept exclusively in the structured data format customary in the Company Register. The Company Register must indicate in which language the data within the meaning of paragraph (1) is stored in the Company Register.

Section 2

Accounting documents and company reports pursuant to Sections 325 ff., 329 ff. HGB and other statutory regulations for financial years commencing after 31 December 2021

Under Section 325 (1), (2a) to (4) HGB, the legal representatives must transmit the specified annual financial statement documents for financial years commencing after 31 December 2021 to the register-keeping authority electronically for inclusion in the Company Register.

Section 329 (1) to (4) HGB requires the register-keeping authority to check the documents are complete and comply with the relevant deadlines. If there is reason to believe that a disclosure exemption may have been wrongly claimed, the register-keeping authority may, where appropriate, demand further information in accordance with the statutory regulations in Section 329 (2) HGB, and under Section 329 (4) in combination with Section 329 (2) sentence 2 HGB is legally obligated to inform the Federal Office of Justice if the information is not provided.

Where the annual financial statement documents are from a micro share capital company pursuant to Section 267a HGB, the legal representatives may also comply with their obligations under Sections 325 et seq. HGB for financial years commencing after 31 December 2021 by transmitting the balance sheet in electronic form to the register-keeping authority in accordance with section 326 (2) HGB to be permanently deposited in the Company Register and by issuing a deposit order. The balance sheet will then be permanently deposited in the Company Register by the register-keeping authority after review as per Section 329 (1) HGB.

If no deposit order is issued, the general disclosure obligation under Section 325 (1) HGB remains in place and the balance sheet will be included electronically in the Company Register for publication. Once an order has been placed by a micro share capital company for entry in the Company Register for publication, it cannot be changed into a deposit order pursuant to Section 326(2) HGB even if the micro share capital company would have been eligible to opt for deposit. The decision not to exercise the statutory elective right pursuant to Section 326(2) HGB by transmitting the documents for entry in the Company Register for publication is final.

A micro share capital company's notification pursuant to Section 326 (2) sentence 3 HGB that no more than two of the three characteristics specified in Section 267a (1) HGB apply to it for the financial statement reporting dates relevant to Section 267 (4) HGB is without prejudice to the provision under Section 329 (2) sentence 1 HGB.

The company or the third party tasked by the company with depositing the documents shall generally be provided with a record of the deposited documents for retrieval in its user account on www.publikations-plattform.de (henceforth referred to as the service platform).

Where the disclosure of documents is based on other statutory regulations which refer to Section 325 HGB in whole or in part, the above shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Section 3

Other authentication procedures may be used, providing they guarantee a comparable assurance standard according to the state of the art. Users who are customers of data processors connected via a key account interface may be registered by the corresponding data processor without issuing an identifier and password if the register-keeping authority offers this option for the connected interface.
- (5) During the registration process, the register-keeping authority is required to review whether there are serious doubts regarding the user's legal capacity or capacity to contract or the user's authorisation to transmit data pursuant to Section 11 (2) first sentence URV.
